William Morris Primary School

The Banbury cluster at GLF Schools, which consists of William Morris Primary, Longford Park Primary, Hardwick Primary and the brand-new Cherry Fields Primary, are searching for outstanding class teachers to join them from September 2020.

Your opportunity

This is a fantastic opportunity for a qualified teacher at any stage in their career to join one of our four primary schools within this cluster, and further develop their career at GLF Schools. All of the schools have a passion and understanding of what effective learning is and help to inspire our pupils to be the best they can be. We are looking for EYFS specialist teachers, KS1 and KS2 teachers to join our team.

About the Banbury Cluster

Consisting of four schools, the Banbury cluster have a collaborative approach towards working, which means the schools can work closely together to provide an outstanding educational experience to the local communities. The schools benefit from being able to share resources and support each other where needed. It will also allow for more opportunities for career progression across the cluster and give you the chance to enhance your professional development.

Longford Park (Nursery to Year 3) and Cherry Fields (Nursery to Reception) are exciting, brand new schools. Hardwick is a fantastic, established one form entry primary school and William Morris is an outstanding, one form entry primary school.

What we are looking for

- Work well as part of a team, as well as being self-motivated and able to work independently
- Be willing and committed to developing and sharing outstanding teaching practice across GLF Schools
- Have the ability to enthuse and engage students in purposeful learning experiences
- Be passionate about the children's learning and welfare
- Have high expectations of achievement and behaviour
- Be committed to personal career progression and enhancement
